RYAN ON JEFFRIES.

The Champion's Trainer Feels Confident He Will Win.

The veteran "Tommy" Ryan is confident champion "Jim" Jeffries will defeat "Sailor Tom" Sharkey to-morrow night. Says Ryan:

"I think Jeffries will beat Sharkey. He is decidedly the more clever man, and has the better head. He is the stronger man and he is the quicker man. Jeffries' muscles are very loose and elastic, and on his feet he is quick as a light weight. His wind is something phenomenal, and I have no doubt of his staying powers. It has been stated that he wanted to quit with Fitzsimmons in the sixth round. Who ever made that statement must have been dreaming. I advised him in that fight. Jeff wanted to go at the blacksmith right from the start, but I kept holding him back.

"Sharkey need never fear that Jeffries will run away. I do not imagine for a moment that this will be a slugging match. On the contrary, it will be a pretty exhibition of skill and science. I am boxing every day with Jeffries, and I know he has very little to learn in the art of defense. He possesses one of the craftiest left hands I ever saw go out from the shoulder. He also owns a solid right that seldom misses the mark. Jeff can deliver a straight blow with either hand, while Sharkey depends wholly on swinging hits."

Dr. F. P. Coleman, who examined Jeffries, reported as follows: "I have this day examined Jim Jeffries and find him to be in absolutely perfect physical condition. His heart is good, pulse beat 72, full and regular, his lungs and wind being in a healthy condition, with six and a half inch expansion on forced inspiration. His wrist which was wrenched, I find to be in perfect condition now, and the little stiffness that existed in his neck from wrestling with Roebor has all disappeared. I have never before seen such a perfectly developed man from head to foot."

Another physician, Dr. George Jessup, examined Sharkey and says: "Here is an illustration of the amazing possibilities of development of the human body. Sharkey's condition, I should say, is simply impossible to improve."

Sharkey said:

"I'm going to surprise the world Friday night by my agility and quickness in getting away."

He illustrated the latter statement with a quick dive and feint backward. A few minutes later he said between skips over the rope:

"I'll make some of these wise guys that have bet $3,000 or $4,000 on Jeffries gray headed when they see me in the ring."

Bonner's Forfeit Received.

Yesterday afternoon, Stakeholder Wallace received from "Jack" Bonner, his $100 forfeit for his appearance here next week, under the required weight. Finnegan's forfeit was received earlier in the week. Bonner says he is in excellent condition and is confident of winning the battle, which comes off before the Metropolitan Athletic Club, in its Fulton arena, Monday evening, November 13.

Games Postponed.

The match games that were to have been bowled at Pittsburgh, between that team and a picked team of the Wheeling league, next Sunday, have been postponed for two weeks, owing to extensive repairs being made on the Pittsburgh alleys. The games at Wheeling will be bowled as scheduled on the 12th league alleys, Sunday, November 12, at 1:30 p. m. There will be no charge for admission at the Wheeling games.

FOOT BALL.

The management of the Greater Wheeling football team has secured the Steubenville team for Saturday, and will make every effort to put in the strongest team obtainable in this vicinity. Every football player in the city and neighboring towns is invited to come out for practice and if there is any latent talent, it will be developed. The rains have prevented outdoor practice, but the present ideal football weather will bring them all out to the Island park this afternoon. Steubenville has been in the football arena a long time and will no doubt send her strongest team. The former games played between Wheeling and Steubenville have created considerable rivalry and both teams will play "for keeps."

The changing of the grid-iron to run parallel with the grand stand permits a better view and the ball is never out of sight to the audience. This will also insure the playing of games, rain or shine.

Bethany has asked for another game with Wheeling, saying that they were somewhat crippled in the last game. They are confident that with their regular team and Coach Duffy, they could turn the tables on Wheeling. They also claim that Wheeling has not sufficiently shown her superiority, as Bethany won a game from Wheeling at Bethany early this season.

There is more interest in football this year than ever before. Almost every vacant lot is covered with boys of all sizes calling signals, running around the end, bucking through the line, working criss-cross punting and arguing off side plays and gains. The Boers and Britons are not more earnest in their struggle than the small boy in his efforts to down his opponent.

The organized and uniformed football teams in Greater Wheeling are the Buckeyes, of Aetnaville; Bellaire; Cathedral High School; two teams; public high school; Linsly; Bridgeport; and Moundsville high school. These teams are composed of all sizes and weights and have averages ranging from 100 to 150 pounds.

RISE IN THE RIVER

Does Not Amount to as Much as Had Been Anticipated, But the Smaller Packets Will Be Enabled to Resume, and More Rain is Likely.

The rise in the river reached its top-notch at Pittsburgh last evening, with 3 feet 6 inches on the marks at Davis Island dam. Here at 6 p. m. the marks showed 2 feet 2 inches and still rising. Probably between four and six feet will be had here, and as more rain is likely it is possible there will be a stage in the upper Ohio before the close of the week that will allow even the larger packets to resume. At any rate, there is enough water in sight to permit the smaller packets to come out, including the Leroy, Ruth, T. M. Bayne and the other locals.

It is rumored that both the Huntington & St. Louis Towboat Company and Barrett & Son, the former with four steamboats and 50 square barges, and the latter with two steamboats and 50 barges of all kinds, will be absorbed by the Monongahela Consolidated Coal and Coke Company. These two concerns are the only large freight transporting lines on the Ohio river outside the combination.

Pittsburgh River News.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 1.—The heavy rains of yesterday and this morning attracted hundreds of rivermen to the Pittsburgh wharf in anticipation of a rise, but it is thought that unless the rainfall at up-river stations continues to-day, the Ohio river at Davis Island dam will not reach a stage of over 5 feet of water. This will be sufficient to float the towboat Relief, which has been aground at Duff for about ten weeks. During her sojourn on the sand the steamer was painted, and put in good repair, and the boat is expected to be afloat to-night. The boat will float when the gauge at Davis Island dam reaches a stage of 3.5 feet.

The rainfall, while heavy at nearly all up-river stations was a disappointment to the rivermen. Only slight rises are reported, but it is said that all of the rain that fell has not yet had a chance to reach the river. West Newton reported the heaviest precipitation, 2.02 inches, and Freeport 1.80 inches. At 8 a. m. rain was reported as falling at all points on the upper Allegheny river and its tributaries. Rivermen confidently believe that if another general rain occurs within a few days the desired rise in the river will take place.

There is a marine law which provides that one master, two pilots and two engineers must be employed on all steamers of ten tons or over. It is said that this law has been violated for the past thirty-five years by some boat-owners. Several steamboat men have called the attention of the local steamboat inspectors to the matter, and it is said that prosecutions are threatened. Some of the boats have been running single crews, and the rivermen fearing that the river combination might employ tactics of this kind to save expenses, thus doing away with a number of men, brought the attention of the matter to the steamboat inspectors. Boat owners are liable to a fine of $100 for violating the act.

MARTIN'S FERRY NEWS.

The Daily Chronicle of Wheeling's Progressive Neighbor.

Last evening at 5:45 o'clock occurred the death of one of Martin's Ferry's, if not Belmont county's, oldest residents. Mrs. Levina McWilliams, at her home on Third street. One week ago yesterday deceased suffered a stroke of paralysis, which severely affected her brain, and since which time she had constantly been hovering between life and death. Mrs. McWilliams was born on the Finney farm, near the toll gate back of town, July 24, 1812, being eighty-seven years of age, and for as many years has constantly been a resident of Pease township, having lived in this city and Bridgeport all her life. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church, and in former years an ardent and faithful worker, but in latter years, on account of infirmities of old age, was compelled to abandon active work in the advancement of the great cause of Christianity. Mrs. McWilliams was a member of the Methodist church of this city when services were held in a little old log cabin. Deceased leaves three children, all residing in this city, Miss Mary McWilliams, William McWilliams and Mrs. Sue Ebberts. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence, on Third street. Interment will be at Week's cemetery.

A Bad Error.

The street car company had a force of men at work yesterday filling in the ground recently excavated for the laying of new rails on South Broadway. It was learned yesterday that the track from the upper part of the Aetna-Standard mill south to the trestle had not been in the proper place, it being about six feet too close to the mill. After the excavation for the new track was completed the error was discovered, and a force of men put to work immediately rectifying it. The proper position for the track along this thoroughfare is within six inches of the curb on the west side of the street, and that is the position the street car officials expect to place it. This change materially improves the street, giving it more width, which has always been badly needed.

The Reformation.

The festival of the Reformation will be observed at the German Lutheran church next Sunday. In the morning the pastor, Rev. Paul Kummer, will deliver a German sermon. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock English services will be held, at which time a special programme will be carried out, when short addresses will be delivered by Rev. P. Metzenthin, of Fenwood, and Rev. E. O. Graham, pastor of the English Lutheran church of Bridgeport.

The Woman's Club.

At the home of Mrs. M. M. Sheets, at "The Elms," yesterday afternoon occurred the third meeting of the season of 1899 and 1900 of the Woman's Club. It was a large and interesting meeting, nearly all the members of the club being present. The following interesting music was rendered: "Miss Emily Hoge The Battle-Reading," Miss Ellen Mitchell Napoleon and Josephine. "Mrs. R. C. Swartz General Discussion—'Should Wives and Daughters Have Allowances?'"—Led by Mrs. George H. Smith.

A Serious Accident.

Frank Stricklin met with quite a serious accident at the Laughlin mill yesterday morning. He was roughing on one of the hot mills, when he was hit on the head by the spinner bar. The blow came with such force as to render him unconscious. Dr. Wilson attended him, and found his injuries were not as serious as had at first been thought. He was resting easily last evening, and it is thought his recovery will be rapid.

Martin's Ferry Briefs.

The Irving-French company opens a three nights engagement at the Star Theatre this evening. It is a strong company, and has made a hit wherever produced this season.

Mrs. Margaret Cummins and Mrs. Baker, who have been the guests of the family of George Barr, on Broadway, returned to their home in Burgettstown, Pa., yesterday.

R. B. Reineck returned yesterday from a business trip through the northern part of the state.

Mrs. Charles Morgan entertained a number of friends last evening at her home, on Third street.

Frank Harrison returned last evening to Bridgeport after a few days' visit with friends here.

Miss Carrie Wood goes to Pittsburgh to-day to visit Miss Maggie Armstrong for a few days.

The new department of the Laughlin, including eight mills, resumed yesterday.

William Lipphardt was in Steubenville yesterday on business.

MOUNDSVILLE BUDGET.

Yesterday's News From Marshall County's Chief City.

It is reported that the Postoria Glass Company is going to build a new factory, and that a number of different towns are endeavoring to secure it. The new factory is to be erected at Moundsville, which is the same as the Moundsville plant had when it began operations here. It will employ about three hundred people, and will be quite a boom for the lucky place that secures it. Our people should be on the lookout, and not allow this chance for a large factory to be captured by some other place.

On the first day of November there were 1,000 pupils enrolled in the public schools of this city. This is the largest in the history of the schools. The enrollment is almost seventy per cent of the enumeration, which shows up better than any previous year at the beginning of the second month.

Moundsville will have free delivery by January 1, 1900, if the city prepares for it by numbering the houses properly all over the city. This is very important, and should be looked after at once, by the council.

Robert Sterrett and family moved to Wheeling yesterday, where they will make their future home. Mr. Sterrett has a position in the Wheeling Natural Gas Company's Wheeling office.

Miss Winona Baldwin, of Washington, Pa., is the pleasant guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carpenter, at their home, on Eighth street.

Mrs. B. F. Hodgman entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the Episcopal church at her home in the Orchard, last evening.

S. W. Mathews is home from a trip to Washington, D. C.

BELLAIRE HAPPENINGS.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County.

Henry Herber, the young man arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Harness for sending obscene matter through the mail has been regarded as out of balance by those who knew him well. He was carried away with the mercurial craze when it was on in Bellaire, and about all the facts and fakes that go seemed to captivate him. These things are not likely to help him much in the indictments against him, perhaps, but may account for them.

The Rose-Morgan Company, of Cleveland, yesterday assumed charge of the Belmont coal works, and other coal property acquired from the Belmont company and from Jacob Heatherington. The deal was controlled by the company is likely to be extended considerably, and it is not out of the range of probabilities that there will be a consolidation of interests in that neighborhood, as those interested seem to feel that a great future is opening for that business in this vicinity.

Hon. C. L. Weems spoke to a good crowd of farmers and miners at St. Clairsville last night. Hon. E. B. Armstrong was to have spoken with him, but he was confined to his home, quite ill. Bills will be out to-day for a meeting for Mr. Weems in this city Saturday night.

Frank B. Archer, Republican candidate for state senator, has gotten out a campaign button with his picture on it, and his friends are wearing them numerously. During the last few days he has been hustling about home actively, and is lining up his friends for a good vote at his home.

Mr. William D. Robinson, of Dunkirk, Ind., and Miss Minnie Cotts were married at the home of the bride's parents here yesterday afternoon. Rev. R. S. Coffey officiating. Only immediate friends were present, and the couple left soon after the ceremony for their Indiana home.

Col. C. L. Poorman has concluded to discontinue his Ohio Bi-Metallist with the completion of its two years' publication, which will be this month. He has had abundant promises of support for it, but these have been so neglected in the past that he will cease its publication.

Albert Lawrence, a McLean manager, was in town Tuesday night, and the workers of that party were around like bees yesterday. They are looking for something to drop, and want to see the size of the roll.

Louis Ebeling is among the Indiana glass men who fared well in closing out his interests there, and will leave some of his cash in this section.

Miss May Boyd is now manager of the Central telephone exchange here, succeeding Miss Cotts. Miss Allum is assistant.

Both parties are lining up for a full vote on election day. Local matters in this city serve to increase the general interest.

The stockholders in the Crystal glass works are looking for their dividends. The deal for that plant seems to have been closed.

Officer H. Bauer, of the city building, sprained his back by slipping on a banana peeling, and suffers considerable pain.

One dollar and costs opposite a single name made up of the record of the mayor's court yesterday.

W. W. Cowen secretary of the Republican county committee was in town yesterday.

Ham Glass, one of the Democratic managers, was in town yesterday.

The school board transacted routine business Tuesday night.

Charles W. Bippus left yesterday for a few days' hunting.

WELLSBURG.

Doings of People in the Brooke County Metropolis.

Some anxiety is manifested over the continued absence from the city of Joseph McHenry, who has not been seen for over ten days. McHenry had been contract for the new road from Glenwood to the county seat, and on October 21 drew $300 from the county, part of which he paid to his workmen, leaving others unpaid. Efforts to ascertain his whereabouts have proved unavailing.

A colored gentleman, hailing from Pittsburgh, applied at the county clerk's office yesterday for a marriage license, but when it developed that the woman in the case was white he was met with a refusal, and thus it is once more demonstrated that the course of true love does not always run smooth.

C. E. Noble, of Wheeling, the new manager of the Brooke glass works is here, and is busily engaged in getting the plant in shape for the resumption of work. Considerable repairs have been necessary, but it is said that everything will be in readiness for making glass on Monday, November 13.

The Bell Telephone Company has a force of men at work shaping poles preparatory to taking the old ones down, and replacing them with new ones. About 4,000 feet of new cable will be used, and some new wire will be put up. The men, sixteen in number, are all from Wheeling.

New cases of diphtheria are reported at the homes of Andrew Hessler, First ward, and Elmer Thompson, in the Third ward.

The school teachers of Buffalo district will hold a district institute at the Lewis school house on Saturday, November 11.

The Wellsburg high school foot ball team will go to West Liberty on Saturday and play the normal school team.

A special session of the county court will be held on Saturday, to consider important road business.

Ex-Senator W. H. Tarr and wife have returned home from an extended western and southern trip.

The Knights of Pythias will have work in the third rank amplified form to-night.

T. J. White has been granted a pension of $12 per month.

BRIDGEPORT HAPPENINGS.

Events of a Day in the Town at the End of the Bridge.

At high noon yesterday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Young, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Katherine, to George Meister. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. O. Graham, of the English Lutheran church, in the presence of intimate acquaintances of the two families. After the ceremony an elegant wedding feast was served, after which the happy couple were driven to the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling depot, whence they left on the 2:40 train for Cleveland and other points in the northern part of the state to be some about ten days.

Isaac Russell had one of his eyes badly hurt Tuesday evening while out with a gun celebrating Hallow E'en. He was struck with a clog of dirt from the hand of a companion. While the accident was not of a serious nature, it required medical attention.

The Crane players, presenting "A Boy From Boston," will be the attraction at the Opera House to-morrow evening. It is a large and strong company, and will doubtless give satisfaction here, as it has done in many of the large cities this season.

The young people of this city will give a dance at the Island club rooms Monday evening in honor of Miss Helen Barrett's guests, Miss Virginia Harris, of Cambridge, Ohio.

The work of setting the curb on the Lincoln avenue extension is progressing rapidly, and will be completed by the last of the week.

Elmer Testers, Charles Donley and Peter House left last evening for Fairpoint on a week's hunting expedition.

Miss Lizzie Christman, of Woodsfield,

A Cure for Nervous Headache.

For eight years I suffered from constipation and severe nervous headache, the headache usually lasting three days at a time. Headache powders relieved me temporarily, but left too bad an effect. Since I began taking Celebrity King I have greatly improved in health, seldom or never have headache, have gained in flesh, and feel decidedly well.—Mrs. E. S. Hatch, Temple, N. H.

Celebrity King cures Constipation and all diseases of the Nerves, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. Sold by druggists. 50c and 60c.

was the guest of her uncle, Max Gaus, yesterday, en route to Pittsburgh.

Miss Maggie McConaughy entertained a number of her friends at her home in the west end Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. B. Driggs and Mrs. Walter Beewick leave to-day
